

Environmental Policy

"Hexpol Compounding México as a company that develops, produces and sells rubber compounds, has the commitment to implement and maintain an effective and practical Environmental Management System, that allows us to identify the significant environmental aspects in order to take care and preserve the environment, as to comply with current corporate and environmental legislation Requirements applicable in a continuous improvement frame.

The guidelines of the Environmental Policy are the following:

Continual Improvement

- Our overall objective is that the activities of Hexpol Compounding México shall not harm the environment.
- Our environmental performance is monitored and communicated, so it is continuously improved.

Compliance with Legislation

- Our operations shall be conducted in compliance with current local environmental legislation.

Resource Efficiency

- Our operations shall be distinguished by a recourse-efficient use of energy, water, raw materials and other natural recourses.

Waste, Emissions and chemicals

- Our operations shall be conducted to minimize the waste and the emissions from our manufacturing processes, as to strive the recycling when possible.

Evaluation of Performance

- We shall review our objectives and indicators and evaluate our performance. These reviews are part of our Quality Management System.

This Environmental Policy is available for public.

Saul Reyes
Managing Director

Revision: 1
Implementation date: Aug 2010